

Battlefield Healthcare 2010

March 23 - 24, 2010 · Hotel Vier Jahreszeiten Kempinski München, Munich, Germany

Conference Day One: 25th March, 2009

08.00 Registration And Coffee

08.30 Chairman's Opening Remarks

08.40 Meeting The Medical Challenges Of The Battlefield

- Strategic challenges to delivering the best medical care in conflict zones
- Mission shift in current conflicts
- Vision of the Army Medical Service in the future

Major General Alan Hawley

Director General, Army Medical Services

British Army

09.20 Developing International Standards For Combat Medical Care

- The proposed Centre of Excellence for Military Medical Issues: Working toward standardisation of pre deployment training
- Lessons learned from ISAF: Experience of multinational cooperation in a Field Hospital
- Providing a role II surgical capacity in Afghanistan: Challenges and opportunities for a smaller military

Colonel Dr. Istvan Kocso

Director, Centre of Excellence in Military Medicine

Hungarian Defence Forces

10:00 Medical Squadrons At Platoon Level In Afghanistan

- The Danish medical contingency in ISAF: Tactical Combat Casualty Care
- Front line care: Training DRs to have efficient military skills. What we deliver at the moment and the gaps we need to fill
- Lessons from recent operations: What does front line medical care have to achieve in the line of duty?

Lieutenant Colonel Sten Hulgaard

Medical Commander, Danish Division

Danish Army

10.40 Networking And Refreshments

11.10 Aeromedical Evacuation

- Forward and tactical evacuation capabilities
- The 'golden hour'
- Handling and treating extremity trauma

Major Johan Oele

Flight Surgeon

The Centre for Man in Aviation Royal Netherlands Air Force

11.50 Damage Control Resuscitation In Combat Casualty Care

- Management of trauma in forward surgical medical teams as seen from a UK forces perspective
- Plasma as the primary resuscitation fluid along with packed red blood cells
- Thoughts on training, revalidation and future equipment

Colonel Timothy Hodgetts

Defence Professor of Emergency Medicine, Royal Centre for Defence Medicine

UK MoD

12.50 Role-III Field Hospital In Afghanistan: Mazar-Esharif

- Meeting the challenges of front line casualty care for the ISAF mission in Afghanistan
- Case study: Tangible benefits of a multinational staff
- Lessons learned

Colonel Karl Pecher MD

Vice-Commander Regional Medical Command IV. Medical Forces Command

Bundeswehr

13.10 Networking Lunch

14.20 Op Herrick: Feedback From A Reserve Unit

- Roles and responsibilities of 204 (NI) Field Hospital (Volunteers)
- Observations on injury patterns and overview of Humanitarian care
- Considerations for a reserve medical squadron

Colonel Ian Moles

Commanding Officer, 204 (NI) Field Hospital (Volunteers)

British Army

15:00 From Battlefield To ICU- Continuity In Respiratory Care

- Ensuring maximum mobility in patient care
- Importance of versatility in respiratory care
- Patient safety priorities

Dr. Björn Hossfeld

Anaesthetist, German Armed Forces Hospital ULM

Bundeswehr

15.40 Networking And Refreshments

Landstuhl Regional Medical Center Care Focus

16.00 The Interdisciplinary Treatment Of Complex Trauma Injuries: An Overview Of Landstuhl

- Overview of a Level II destination in the combat casualty care chain
- Trends we are seeing
- The future for Landstuhl

Colonel Brian Lein

Commander

Landstuhl Regional Medical Center

16.40 Management Of Facial Trauma At Landstuhl

- Importance of level II damage control surgery
- Common facial injuries we are seeing at Landstuhl
- Efforts in soft tissue preservation

Colonel Stephen F. Flaherty

Trauma Consultant to the Surgeon General, Chief of Surgery

Landstuhl Regional Medical Center

17:20 Chairman's Summary And Closing Remark