

COUNTER-INSIDER THREAT SYMPOSIUM

FORMERLY INSIDER THREAT SYMPOSIUM

DEVELOPING SOPHISTICATED TECHNOLOGIES, POLICIES AND PROGRAMS
TO EFFECTIVELY MITIGATE INSIDER THREAT

OCTOBER 27-28, 2020
MARY M. GATES LEARNING CENTER | ALEXANDRIA, VA

Confirmed Speakers include:

Brig Gen Terry Bullard,
USAF
Commander
Air Force Office of Special
Operations

Richard D. McComb, SES
Chief Security Officer
Department of Homeland Security

Charles Margiotta
Director
National Insider Threat
Task Force

M.A. "Mo" Myers
Assistant Director
Insider Threat Office
FBI

8:00 – 8:45	Registration and Light Breakfast Reception Open
8:45 – 9:00	Chairperson Opening Remarks
9:00 – 9:45	Keynote Remarks: Understanding the 2020 Counterintelligence Strategy and National Efforts to Prevent Insider Threats <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Leading government wide efforts to prevent and respond to the continuous risk posed by insider threat - Mitigating insider threats while also ensuring the protection of civil liberties, rights and privacy - Closing critical CI, security, and HR gaps in Executive Branch departments and agencies - Recommendations for industry to reduce risks to sensitive IP and critical infrastructure Charles Margiotta (Confirmed) Director National Insider Threat Task Force
9:45 – 10:15	Developing Counter-Insider Threat Professionals to Improve Insider Threat Programs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Improving the people-related aspect of the Counter-Insider Threat capability -Creating common standards to measure Counter-Insider Threat professionals -Updates to the DoD Insider Threat Program Dr. Brad Millick (Confirmed) Director, Insider Threat Program Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence
10:15 – 11:00	Networking Break and Exhibits
11:00 – 12:30	Panel Discussion: Monitoring and Managing Stressors Posed by COVID 19 in Order to Reduce Insider Threat Risks COVID 19 has increased stressors across the US population, including the US Government and private sector workforce. The Novel Coronavirus has produced anxiety about getting sick or seeing a loved one get sick, as well as second order effects such as financial difficulties, loneliness, marital/relationship stressors, and alcohol and drug abuse. Each of these stressors are key drivers that can lead to insider threat. This is an abnormal time and it is important for organizations to understand these stressors and help their workforce to cope appropriately and avoid intentionally, or unintentionally causing damage to the organization. This panel will focus on the intersection of key components within an organization involved in preventing and mitigating insider threat. Moderator: Charles Margiotta, Director, National Insider Threat Task Force (Confirmed) Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Dr. Brad Millick, Director, Insider Threat Program, Department of Defense (Confirmed) - Delice Bernhard, Director for Security, Insider Threat and Mission Assurance (Confirmed) - J.T. Mendoza, Deputy Director, USAF Insider Threat Hub (Confirmed)

12:30 – 1:30	Networking Lunch & Exhibits
1:30 – 3:00	Panel Discussion: Technology Solutions to Support Insider Threat Programs While organizations cannot rely solely on technology to prevent insider threats, the multitude of tools available to support InT programs has never been greater. This panel will focus on solutions to technical challenges that enable humans to use their time most efficiently and in areas where technology is not suitable. The panel will focus on advancements in AI, Big Data, and machine learning that can aid the program office and help utilize limited human resources in the most effective manner possible. Moderator: Robert Lerner, Technical Director, National Insider Threat Task Force (Confirmed) Panelists:
3:00 – 3:30	Networking Break & Exhibits
3:30 – 4:15	Combating Insider Threats at the FBI-Current Objectives of the FBI’s Insider Threat Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Coordinating all insider threat issues across the Bureau - The FBI typology of intentional insider threat - Increasing the technological resources and authorities available in order to neutralize national security risks M.A “Mo” Myers (Confirmed) Assistant Director, Insider Threat Office Federal Bureau of Investigation
4:15 – 5:00	Protecting Critical Infrastructure from Insider Threats <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Common threat vectors for insider threat, including non-malicious threats -Managing third party vendors and contractors to mitigate insider threats from outside of your organization -Understanding the motivations that lead to malicious insider threats Robert Odell (Confirmed) Critical Infrastructure Lead National Insider Threat Task Force
5:00	End of Day One

October 28, 2019

8:15 – 8:45	Registration and Light Breakfast Reception Open
8:45 – 9:00	Chairperson Opening Remarks
9:00 – 9:45	Expanding the Scope of the DHS Insider Threat Program -Preventing threats from insiders with or without access to classified information -Monitoring new sources of information from DHS HQ and Components -Update on the evolution of DHS Insider Threat Program Richard D. McComb, SES (Confirmed) Chief Security Officer Department of Homeland Security
9:45 – 10:30	Safeguarding the Integrity and Trustworthiness of the Federal Workforce <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Transforming the background investigation enterprise to more efficiently leverage new technologies and continuous evaluation strategies- Understanding the changes to NBIB due to re-alignment under the DoD umbrella- Guiding the newly formed DCSA in continuous vetting and insider threat operations William Lietzau (Invited) Director Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency
10:30 – 11:15	Air Force OSI Efforts to Detect, Deter, and Mitigate Insider Threat - Growing Requirements and Expectation for OSI Insider Threat capabilities - New initiatives at OSI for threat management and early detection of pathways to violence - Integrating AF capabilities with DoD to support Insider Threat Across DoD Brig Gen Terry Bullard, USAF (Confirmed) Commander Air Force Office of Special Investigations
11:15 – 11:45	Networking Break & Exhibits

11:45 – 12:45	Panel Discussion: Reviewing the Success of Government Insider Threat Programs: Two Year Review of the NITTF Insider Threat Program Maturity Framework In November 2018, the National Insider Threat Task Force released the “Insider Threat Program Maturity Framework.” The framework provides agencies with the minimum elements necessary to establish functional InT programs and is designed to help agencies become more proactive, comprehensive, and better postured to deter, detect, and mitigate insider threat risk. This panel will review the success of the framework two years after its release. Panelists will share their insights into, and lessons learned about the various elements of the framework. Moderator: TBA Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - COL Michael Birmingham, USA, Division Chief, Insider Threat Division, Department of the Army (Invited) - Jennifer Floyd, Branch Chief, Navy Insider Threat to Cybersecurity Program (Invited)
12:45 – 1:45	Networking Lunch
1:45 – 2:30	Leveraging Advanced Behavioral Analytics to Detect Threats <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Incorporating behavioral analytics technologies into insider threat programs - Addressing the latest advancements in behavioral science as it applies to insider threat - Examining the effectiveness of behavioral analytics in identifying potential incidents of non-malicious insider threat incidents Speaker TBA
2:30 – 3:15	Session TBA
3:15	End of Symposium